The sculpture can also be obtained in ceramics.

Welcome to the exhibition Mannen - Males - Männer, in which the work of German painter Peter Schauwecker (82) is in the center.

Since the start of the gallery in 2007, the work of realist and painter Peter Schauwecker (1936, Feuchtwangen, Germany) has been shown in several exhibitions.

Peter Schauwecker is a wayward painter, art teacher and artistic therapist. He taught as a professor at the Munich University of Applied Sciences. Since 1999 he has been working as a freelance artist - or as he says 'pensionado' - with exhibitions in Germany, Italy and regularly in the Netherlands at gallery MooiMan and a couple of art fairs.

After his retirement, Peter continued to draw and paint in a studio house in Puchheim, near Munich, with a number of models. The common thread in all of his work is his fascination with the man's naked body and the correct anatomical representation of it in all conceivable positions. The exhibition is proof of how virtuoso he is even in old age.

The exhibition will be opened by historian Egbert van der Werff. The exhibition is supplemented with new bronze sculptures by German artist Ivo Blanck.
