MAN(N)EN BEELDEN

In February of this year Marcel turned 80 years old. This was celebrated in March with a number of new sculptures in the Zeven Zomers gallery in Nijmegen, the city where he worked. Marcel now lives in Fresnes-sur-Apance.

The exhibition in gallery MooiMan will be more extensive and will show a museum overview of his oeuvre from his early days up to and including the latest new images. In addition, there will be works by a number of artists selected by Marcel.

Adam Bossa will be present at the opening. Adam is the model who has inspired him for many years to create his imposing, life-size sculptures, in addition to beautiful works of modest size. Humanity is always the subject of his images. Those images not only show the beauty of the male body, but also the inner beauty of the models. Bravour but also modesty, they are aware of their nakedness, viewed by many during exhibitions, at art fairs, but also in his book.

Selected by Marcel Julius Joosen:
works by Ewoud Broeksma, Danny Cobbaut,
Ron Griswold, Dan Simoneau, Richard Stabbert,
Ralf Wehrle & Uwe Frank
