Young & Old

Opening exhibition on Sunday September 13 at 4 PM.
Gallery open at 3 PM.

JAAP DE JONGE, "Model"

What is 'old' and what is 'young'? An older person can feel young, and a youth can already be considered old. But what they have in common is their vulnerability. The youth is vulnerable because of his 'beauty' which is unsustainable. The old man is vulnerable because of his old age and approaching decay. One still has a whole life ahead of him; the other already has many years behind him, with all the experiences that come with them.

Both artists engage with the theme of this exhibition: Peter Colstee with youthfulness, depicted in portraits, everyday situations, or still lifes. Jaap de Jonge photographs models of very diverse ages, but in this exhibition, the focus is on somewhat older models.

It is up to the viewer to discover the beauty in these paintings and photographs.
